

Independent Freight Agent Program

Build your freight business with VIEWDIA technology, authority, and support behind you.

AGENT OPPORTUNITIES

Run your book with more support and less overhead.

VIEWDIA gives independent freight agents the freedom to build customer and carrier relationships while our team supports the systems, authority, financing, and operating structure around the freight. You focus on selling, service, and account growth. VIEWDIA helps keep the business moving behind the scenes.

Grow

Build your book with VIEWDIA support behind you.

TMS

Use technology for quotes, shipments, and visibility.

Authority

Operate under VIEWDIA brokerage authority.

What VIEWDIA provides

Onboarding and guidance

Practical training, process guidance, and support designed to help you move quickly without guessing how the platform works.

Transportation technology

Systems for quoting, shipments, tracking, communication, and the details customers expect you to know.

Credit checks and financing

Support with customer credit checks, financing, and account setup so you can spend more time developing business.

Vetted carrier network

Carrier relationships and onboarding processes that help protect your customers, your freight, and your reputation.

VIEWDIA authority

Operate under VIEWDIA authority instead of building your own brokerage infrastructure from scratch.

Back-office support

Operational and administrative support that helps keep your book moving as it grows.

The fit: independent, relationship-driven, service-minded.

Why agents choose this model

- More control

Work where you are productive, set your own goals, and build customer relationships you want to own.

- More earning upside

Your income follows your performance. VIEWDIA gives you the platform and support to pursue growth.

- Lower operating burden

Avoid the cost and complexity of building every system, process, and administrative function on your own.

Who fits this opportunity

This opportunity fits driven freight, logistics, or sales professionals who want to grow a book of business and serve customers with strong communication.

- You have freight, logistics, transportation, or B2B sales experience.
- You want independence without losing access to a team, systems, and operational support.
- You care about service quality, carrier relationships, and long-term customer trust.

Start the agent conversation

Tell VIEWDIA about your logistics experience, customer base, freight focus, and the support that would help you grow.
